Brunel University London

Technician Commitment Action Plan

December 2020

| Networking opportunities and | Provide opportunities for staff to network   | Attendance at events                   |
|------------------------------|--|--|
| Conference Attendance        | outside the institution with organisationswho are signed up to the TechnicianCommitment and attendance at ProfessionalBody and technician networking events.Where appropriate, and financially possible,encourage technical staff to attendconferences | recorded through StaffDevelopment. |
| Leadership Development       | Encourage and support more technical staffto access Brunel's ASPIRE LeadershipProgramme.   | ASPIRE Programmeregistrations      |

| Action   |   | Evidence                                       |
|--|---|--|
| Succession planning/Entry to technical Careers | Articulate and develop routes into Technicalcareers at Brunel such as (1) EngineeringTechnician Apprenticeship Scheme (2)   | Published TechnicianApprenticeship Schemes |
| Evaluating Impact                              | Technician Graduate Trainee Scheme.Establish Technician Commitment Steering   | Regular meetings                               |
|  | Board. In addition to oversight of theTechnician Commitment action plan, theBoard will evaluate the impact of itsconstituent elements, proposingadjustments where appropriate.  |  |
| Developing Insight                             | Develop an 'establishment' for technicalstaff.Develop a dashboard of measures to informsustainability, covering employment,progression and development technicalworkforce.Develop focus groups of key stakeholders toinform the long term sustainability of thetechnical workforce. | ji   |