

International Student Travel Insurance

This international student travel insurance policy is designed to cater for the insurance needs of persons studying in the UK at Brunel Language Centre. The product provides cover

Up to £1,000.00 for additional expenses if the student is required to stay in the UK beyond their scheduled return date due to Covid-19 illness. Costs for up to two close relatives or friends to either travel to or remain in the UK to be with the student and to escort them home (including qualified attendants if necessary).

An additional 60 days automatic extension to continue covering the student if they are unable to leave the UK due to the pandemic (no additional premium will be charged).

The cover is subject to the definitions, general conditions, claims conditions, important conditions relating to health and the general exclusions applicable to all sections of the Group Policy.
